

FOR AT-WILL RELEASE 22 JULY 2009

Colonial Navy Recruiting Day at Watermen's Museum - August 8

Yorktown Beach -- The staff of the Watermen's Museum and the Crew of the HMS OTTER navy reenactment group will join forces to hold a 18th century Navy Recruiting day at the Museum on Saturday August, 8.

Reenactors will demonstrate life in the Navy and will include visitors in crafts, drills, and other activities. The Museum will also host food, fun, colonial dancing, and songs at the "Mermaid Tavern" alias the Museum's Carriage House. Museum members will receive a discount on food and beverage purchases.

For information contact the Watermen's Museum at 757-887-2641.

Photo Caption: Sailor, Mike Steen, demonstrates how to splice stranded line as part of sharing seamanship skills with the public.

#